To start viewing messages, select the forum that you want to visit from the selection below. Please allow me to proceed with my constructive experience with the software. This software was supposed to be a Free version. However when you start it up it's like a full version because you can't find any option to customize. In the help file, it says, "This program can be used in personal and commercial activities." It was clear to me that Free means Free, Personal means Personal and Commercial means Commercial. So for a Free software, it's a bit expensive. If only there was an option to buy the software for a cheaper price. (On the other hand, if you have cash for a Free software, why not buy?) Anyway, I took a look at the help file. But unfortunately it's not very detailed. So please include this when posting and I'll be happy to reply. If you read the whole Post it will tell you why it is Free. As for it's price.
